

That's Why I'm a Citizen Planner

What is CPI?

The main programming of Citizens Planning Institute (CPI) is a seven-week course that provides an introduction to city planning, zoning & the development process.

Who is CPI for?

Any Philadelphian who loves where they live! If you want to make a difference in your community, CPI is for you!

When & where is CPI?

The Fall 2017 classes will be Wednesday evenings from 6-9pm from October 11 - November 15 in Center City. Course fees include dinner.

How do I apply?

The application will be on the CPI website from August 30 - September 20. We receive over 100 applicants for only 30 available spots. For a print application call: 215-683-4648.

CPI is the education & outreach arm of the Philadelphia City Planning Commission
