

Save the Date!

Placemaking Part One: Identifying Your Community's Strengths

Thursday, March 21, 2019

9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Springfield Township Municipal Building, Bornman Hall

As part of the Planning Beyond Paper initiative, Delaware County Planning Department is hosting a three-part series on Placemaking: the act of creating vibrant spaces for communities.

Placemaking Part One: Identifying Your Community's Strengths is a discussion on event and cultural planning with community identity in mind. This event will bring together local experts to provide an introduction to the concepts of placemaking. Speakers will share their experiences in building placemaking projects from the ground up, followed by a mini-workshop assisting attendee's in identifying their communities' biggest strengths to help build their brand.

This event is geared toward elected officials, municipal staff, professional planners and economic development officials, and non-profit leaders looking to make a lasting impact on their community.

For more information visit our website www.delcoplanning.ticketleap.com/placemaking-part1

Planning Beyond Paper is an initiative of Delaware County to help communities bring their planning efforts to fruition through education, coordination and technical assistance.

